Other information SOUTH AFRICA TO GERMANY
She relocated from South Africa to Europe in 2013 to pursue her equestrian career. She initially trained in Denmark before moving to Germany in 2014. "I started moving back and forth between the two continents, but I decided that, if I really wanted to make it, I had to be based [in Europe]. I will always be South African at heart, that's never going away, but at the moment [dressage in South Africa] just isn't big enough."
